 in homeroom.
 Rita

Gee! I don't know what to say to you.

Honest! I can't think of a thing.

Oh yes! I suppose I could write all that - "to a smart kid & best wishes" much but I don't want to be a droop. So I'll just say. So long datebait, look me up for a shinkick sometime.

Your English classmate,

Edward Moore

Dear Jean,
here's hoping that a swell girl named Jean

King's Crown 1942

Rufus King High School
Milwaukee, Wisconsin

I suck and everything that goes with it. It's a swell gal.

*Russ. Cheney

I pledge allegiance
to the flag of the United States of America, and to the Republic for which it stands;

One nation, indivisible,
With Liberty and Justice for all.

You see . . .

It was one of those September skull sessions—everybody trying to dig up an idea for the book, but not seeming to get any place—when Betty said: “One of the things I don’t like about annuals is the way they are divided up into sections. Things really are all scrambled up together—football games, dances, classes, and what have you—not arranged in neat little sections.”

“You’ve got something there,” Hank interrupted. “If the annual is supposed to be a reflection of the year, why don’t we put stuff in the way it happens?”

“Like a diary!” Dorothy contributed.

“Like a picture diary!” amended Marilyn.

Mr. and Miss Advisor sighed.

Well, here it is, the King’s Crown of 1942. Judy tells all about the year (and quite a bit about Pete) in her diary. It starts off much like any year . . . football . . . new teachers . . . dances. Then the war—. But go ahead and look for yourself.

And we hope you like it.

Fall

September . . . school started . . . Jean with a luscious tan, and her Joe sooo much taller . . . the mad rush getting back into the harness . . . books, books, books . . .
 new classes . . . rain 'n' reversibles . . . football . . . we beat Marquette 8-0 . . . American Legion Convention . . . two days' vacation . . . parades, movie stars . . . Bob Hope . . . girls' hockey began . . . girls in kerchiefs a yard square . . . summer's really ended . . .

SEPTEMBER — 1941

Dear Diary — Back to school this morning, and I guess I'll just have to admit that I'm glad to return to good old King! This year promises a lot of study, exams, and FUN. . . .

Dear Diary — It was so exciting seeing everyone again, and finding out which teachers we have this semester. Thank goodness, Pete is in one of my classes. Here's a picture of the new teachers, Mr. Stewart, Miss Layman, and Mr. Barr.

Dear Diary — The boys in the bookstore certainly worked hard today; in this picture you can see what an anxious group there was waiting to buy paper 'n' pencils 'n' books.

Dear Diary — Here's an adorable picture of Vernell Luebke and Elaine Mueller looking over some new books in the library.

SEPTEMBER — 1941

Dear Diary — Today Pete and I, and Pete's trusty camera went out to watch football practice — and when the boys weren't looking—Pete snapped them—he got one too of Coaches Hanks and Wolf, with Jimmy Sixty. Golly, they looked so intense!

Dear Diary — Today it rained like everything and Pete and I turned our reversibles. I bet it would have been loads of fun to slosh about in the stadium, like Jim Berry and Ray Guenther were doing.

Dear Diary — Hooray! Two whole days of vacation for the American Legion convention! The Legionnaires are having fun, and so are we.

Dear Diary — The library here is a wonderful place to look up something, as anyone can guess from seeing this picture.

SEPTEMBER — 1941

Dear Diary — Today we all went out to the stadium and had a big pep rally. We yelled and hollered and practiced songs for the first of the season's games this Friday night.

Dear Diary — Oh, what fun! Pete and I were so happy 'cause we beat Marquette tonight by a score of 8-0.

Dear Diary — How time flies — just think, one month of the semester is almost over.

Top Row — Richard Beck, Mgr., John Bezak, Robert Milke, LeRoy Zweifel, Richard Ramseyer, Robert Polachek, Carlton Weisner, Gordon Barwick, Robert Poker, Mgr.

Second Row — Charles Wagner, Dan O'Gorman, Roger Lucas, Eberhard Bollman, Warren Giese, Sol Kossoris, Robert Dopke, Coach Wolf.

Third Row — Jack Jaeger, Edward Schmidt, Norbert Jankowski, Jack Gardner, Gerry Lemberg, Burnett Lee, Erwin Bannenberg, James Sixty, Mgr.

Fourth Row — Warren Ryan, Russell Bauer, Arthur Humboldt, Robert Witt, William Butz, Donald Franke, Kenneth Gostchock.

October . . . girls' sweaters a mile long . . .

homecoming game . . . dancers swaying to the scintillating sweet
'n' swing of Jimmy Hippert's band . . . soccer . . . bruises galore . . . girls' hockey . . . exciting games . . . crisp air . . .
Hallowe'en . . . witches . . . masks . . . grinning jack-o-lanterns
. . . football games with filled stands . . . frost

OCTOBER — 1941

Dear Diary — School is really under way now! Activities and councils are going full steam — Pete and I are giving our all to the school council and publication council, respectively.

Dear Diary — Pete and I had the most ecstatic time at the homecoming game and dance! Even tho' we lost to Washington's Purgolders, 23-7, the game was simply super! We saw Lois Huberty and Jimmy Lembek dancing in a dreamy state. Ah, what a night!

Dear Diary — Girls' hockey has started . . . Pete remarked that "putting a club in a girl's hand is dangerous." What does Pete know about girls? Speaking of hockey, Pete took this snap of the girls in action.

Left to right:

Top Row — Terrance Peterson, Mgr., J. Haugh, Bob Feldman, Edwin Pernitz, Glenn Selker, Elmer Lanting, Melvin Tramitz, Roland Klug, John Willing, Harry Mueller, Joe Beck, Mgr.

Third Row — Coach Foti, Coach Rosenthal, Dick Fox, George Borden, Ed Ramshack, Russ Bott, Calvin Connel, Fred Groth, Jack Mueller, Martin Lange, Joe Behling, Mgr., Coach Bubeck.

Second Row — Edward Sauer, Vernon Ponjielic, Orville Koslosky, Bob Knapp, Harry Nugha-kian, Evan Jaeger, Ken Behling, Walter Bachalek, Glen Michelson, Fred Willing, Ed Schmidt.

Bottom Row — Clyde Farley, G. Van Till, Howard Unrath, Guenther Rexhausen, Ted Granicki, Vernon Pauley, Siegfried Lammers, Don Bong, Russ Krueger.

OCTOBER — 1941

Dear Diary — Pete and I were standing near the fence watching football practice after school, and ever-alert Pete snapped this picture. Must be fun to play football!

Dear Diary — The freshman-sophomore football team looks fine in this group picture, I think.

Back Row—W. Kreissig, W. Wesnor, P. Sackenheim, C. Rosman, C. Schmidt, R. Locksmith, C. Plout, Mgr.

Middle Row—P. Altschwager, E. Gilbert, K. Wiesner, J. Franjevic, E. Schmidt, J. Haase, R. Gieringer.

Front Row—K. Cameron, G. Jung, D. Haugh, Sauter, D. Beilfuss, R. Ruhnke, G. Sauer, R. Kreissing, Captain.

OCTOBER — 1941

Dear Diary—Another group picture for my collection—soccer this time. The boys certainly work hard playing soccer, as anyone can see from these two snaps.

Dear Diary—Hallowe'en! Pete and I went out with the gang dressed as Napoleon and Little Eva! What fun!

November . . . frosty air . . . cross-country . . . everybody's wearing stadium boots already . . . Armistice Day . . . impressive program in the gym . . . Open House . . . school alive with students and parents . . . comradeship . . . food for Thanksgiving baskets . . . "Case of Mary Herries" . . . auditorium filled both nights . . . football season finished, with King defeating Tech . . . basketball started . . .

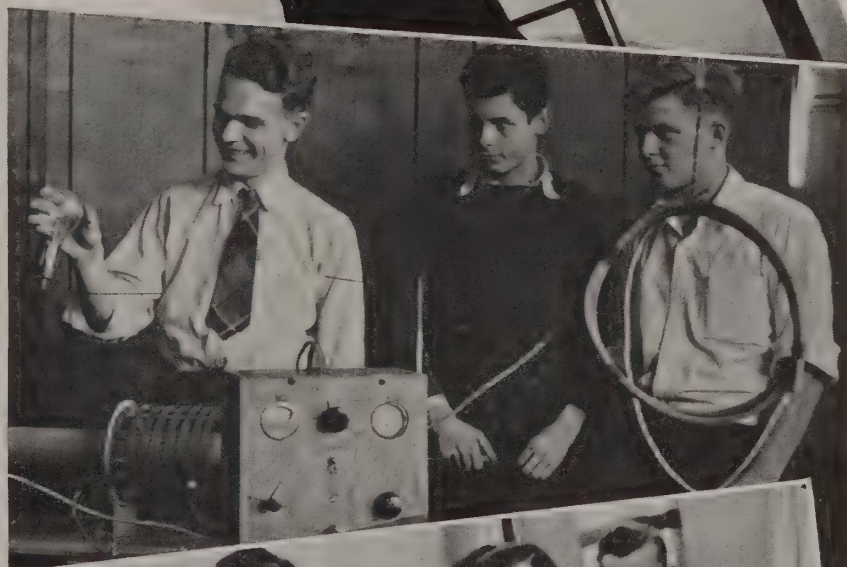

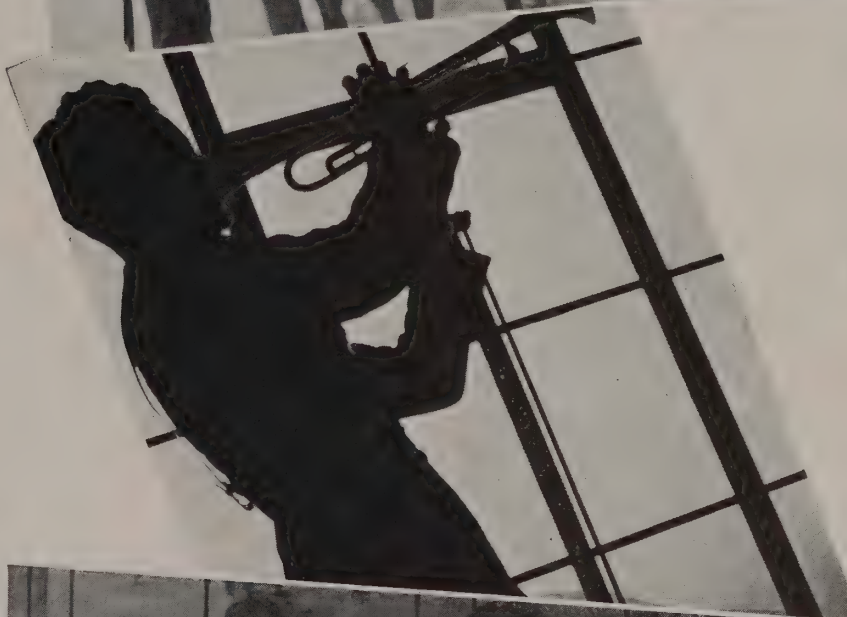

NOVEMBER — 1941

Dear Diary — This month is getting off to a flying start — King played a game of soccer against Custer, at Custer's stamping grounds, and the score was 3-2, our favor!

Dear Diary — Today being Armistice Day, we had our annual program in the gym. It was so impressive that I almost cried; even fun-loving Pete was very thoughtful.

Dear Diary — Pete called for me at 7:00 tonight, and we went to Open House. It seemed odd to see parents and kids, instead of just kids.

Dear Diary — Before I forget, here are two pictures Pete managed to take at Open House.

NOVEMBER — 1941

Dear Diary—We had a football game, and as usual, Pete and I went, and yelled so much we threw our voices out of whack. Here's a snap of some King girls doing it too.

Dear Diary—Tonight was King's first conference basketball game. We played Marquette — and won.

Dear Diary—Everybody came to school loaded down with good things to eat for the Thanksgiving baskets. I brought pumpkin, and Pete brought cranberries.

Dear Diary—Our freshman-sophomore football team has made a wonderful showing this year — here are the scores of the games:

King .....	6—Country Day .....	0
King .....	7—South .....	0
King .....	6—Lincoln .....	2
King .....	6—East .....	6

NOVEMBER — 1941

Dear Diary — The Tech-King game tonight was the last of the season, and King won, 13-6. Pete and I had the time of our lives!

Dear Diary — The football season is over, and I've made a summary of all the games the Generals played. Here it is:

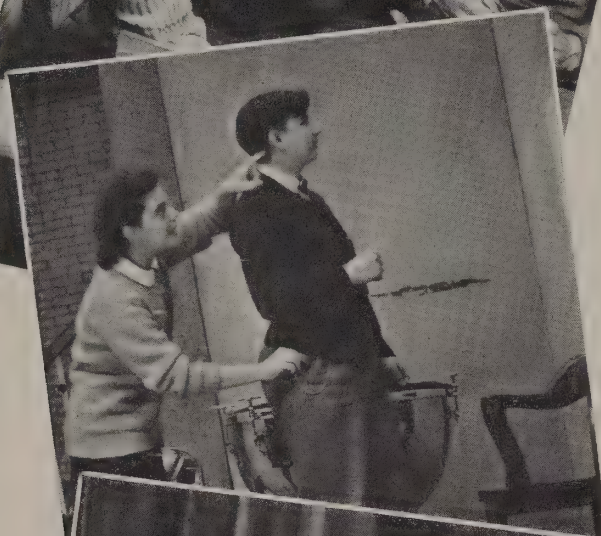

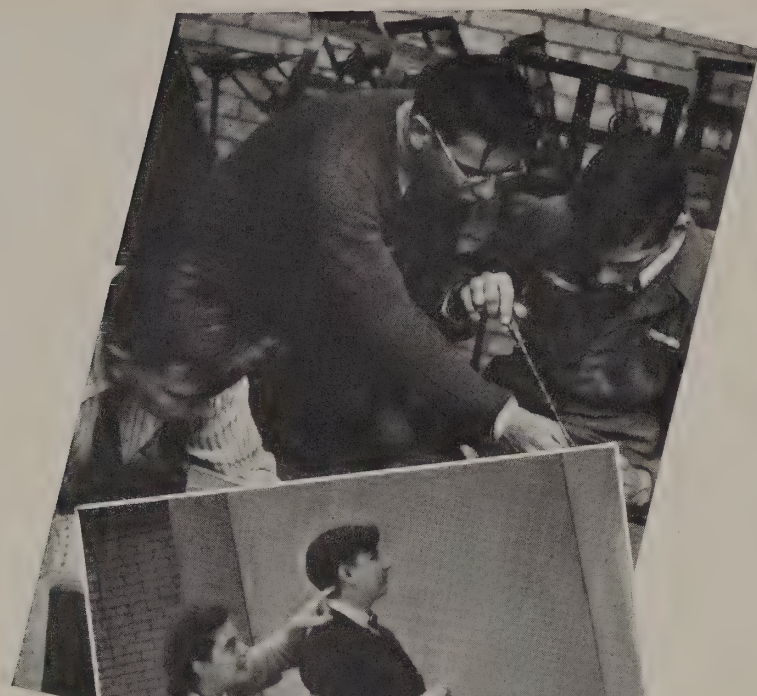

Pre-season Games

King .....	8 — Marquette .....	0
King .....	20 — South Milwaukee..	0

Conference Games

King .....	7 — Pulaski .....	0
King .....	0 — Lincoln .....	0
King .....	0 — Bay View .....	6
King .....	7 — Washington .....	23
King .....	13 — Custer .....	7
King .....	13 — Tech .....	6

Dear Diary — "The Case of Mary Herries" was given tonight for the first time, and it was stupendous! All the actors were just out of this world — here are some pictures of the cast during rehearsal and on play night.

Left to right:

Top Row — Mr. Charette, Walter Knoelke, Steve Vachalek, Elroy Hottinger, Eddie Kiepert, Erwin Kamerow, James Slamer, Earl Halver-son, Lyle Peters, Douglas Miller, Harold Dietz, Mr. Neubauer.

Middle Row — Bill Schultz, Robert Jonas, Mar-shall Hyde, Charles Bohde, John Warren, Lester Zirbel, Rolf Sommers, Earl Charleston, Jack Wierschem.

Bottom Row — Danny Nargaard, Harvey Meyer-peter, Jim Wettingel.

Front — Keith Gauger.

NOVEMBER — 1941

Dear Diary — Our cross-country sea-son has started, and do we have a good team! I'm putting in this picture of all the cross-country boys, with Mr. Wing.

Dear Diary — Gee, I'm proud of King athletics! Our "B" football team has played awfully hard, and has won two, and lost two, making its average .500. Here's a group picture of the whole team.

Winter

W inter

December . . . Pearl Harbor attacked . . .

President's message to Congress heard over loudspeakers . . .
 war, war, war . . . defense stamps . . . air raid precautions . . .
 swirling snow . . . letters and chevrons awarded for football, cross-country, soccer . . . Christmas Dance . . . Yuletide carols sung during noon-hours . . . huge pine tree hung with ornaments in the front hall . . . Christmas vacation . . . no school for two weeks . . . many planning to give defense stamps instead of frivolous gifts . . .

DECEMBER — 1941

Dear Diary — Twenty-five days left until Christmas, and Pete and I have all our shopping done! We have time to tramp in the snow and get snaps like this.

Dear Diary — Yesterday we were listening to a football game, and the program was interrupted to say the Japs had attacked Pearl Harbor! Over the loudspeaker system today we heard President Roosevelt ask Congress to declare war on the Axis, and did they do it in a hurry!

Dear Diary — Everyone at school is talking about the war. The sale of stamps and bonds here at King has jumped almost overnight. The defense stamp posters attract a lot of attention, too.

Dear Diary — Pete came over today and said he's going to join the marines, and it took all evening to persuade him to wait till he finishes this school year.

DECEMBER — 1941

Dear Diary — We've been singing Christmas carols in the auditorium during noon-hours, and is it nice!

Dear Diary — The chevrons and letters were awarded today for football, soccer, and cross-country. Speaking of sports, Pete snapped this fencing pic.

Dear Diary — Rufus King was the first school to volunteer in Defense Aid! That means that soon we'll be having air raid drills.

Dear Diary — We heard the girls' a cappella chorus today, and they sang so beautifully! And they hardly looked real, with their red capes and candles.

DECEMBER — 1941

Dear Diary — The girls' social club went out to the Soldiers' Home with Christmas presents and cookies, and I imagine they enjoyed themselves as much as the soldiers did.

Dear Diary — We had a real concert in the auditorium today. Pete snapped this of James Diego Innis, the conductor.

Dear Diary — Pete and I tripped the light fantastic tonight at the Christmas dance. Everything was so Christmasy—even Santa Claus showed up.

Dear Diary — Cross-country has ended, and I've made a list of all the scores:

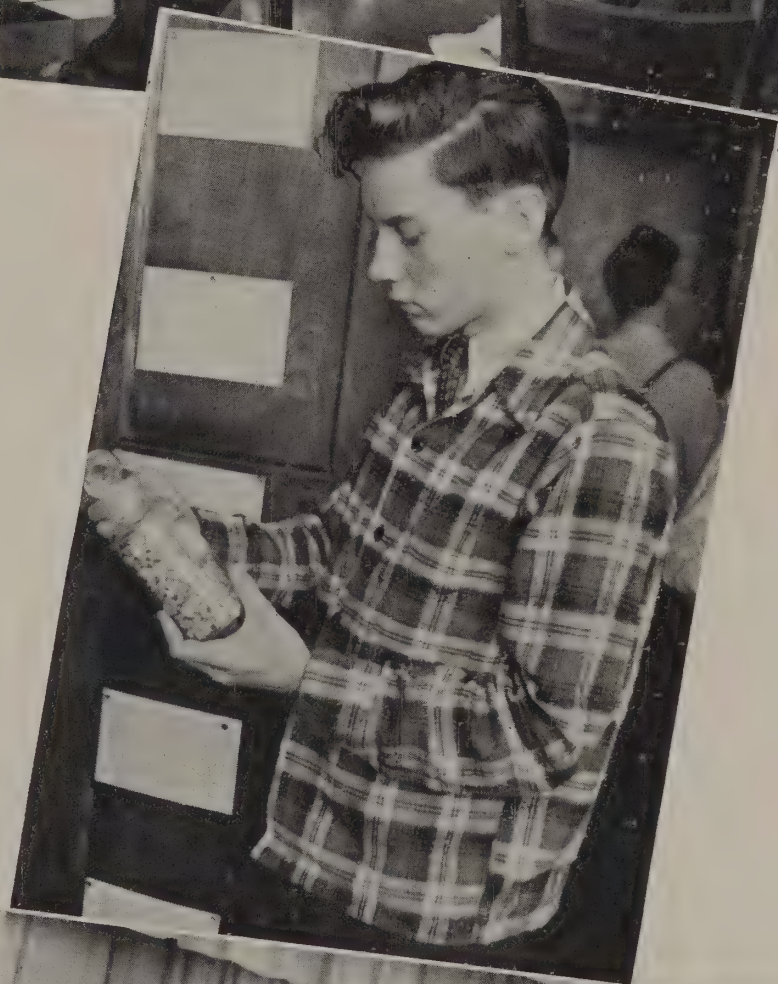

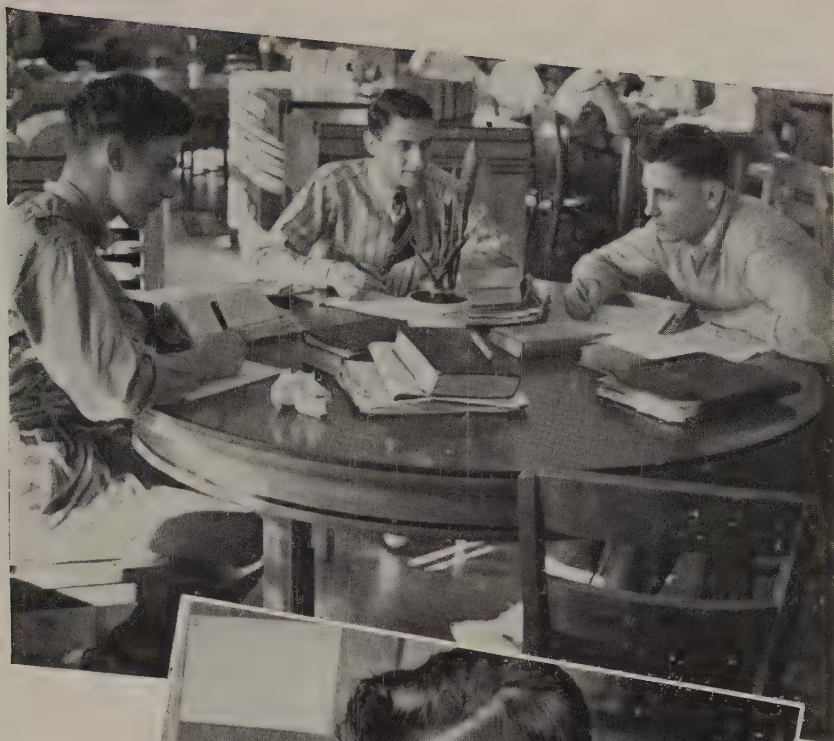

King .....	31 — Lincoln .....	24
King .....	17 — Bay View .....	43
King .....	30 — Custer .....	21
King .....	40 — South .....	18
King .....	31 — East .....	25
King .....	30 — Pulaski .....	26

Dear Diary — Ah, vacation!

January . . . back to school after Christmas vacation . . . everyone refreshed and ready for hard work . . .
 20 and 25 degrees below . . . graduates signing the honor scroll . . . messages from the alumni in service . . . noon-hour dancing . . . basketball games drawing big crowds . . . snow . . .
 Victory Ball . . . graduation . . . gleaming white diplomas . . .
 good-byes . . . reunions at the Alumni Dance . . .

JANUARY — 1942

Dear Diary — Off to school again, and br-r-r is it cold! All the girls are wearing snowpants!

Dear Diary — We had a treat in chemistry class today — Jim Berry gave the most interesting speech! He talked at Marquette U., too.

Dear Diary — Pete and I went to the Victory Ball tonight, and I wore my new swishy white formal. We saw Warren Giese, president of the graduating class, and Pat Patek, who looked so cute. Everything was simply scrumptious! M-m-m!

Dear Diary — Most of the January graduates looked so happy tonight at commencement exercises! A few looked a little sad though. Wonder why?

Dear Diary — Pete and I have kept an account of all the soccer games, and it is complete now.

A rhyme's the thing, for grads of King

Quick to learn, quick to see,
A good gym teacher she will be.—M. A.

Of all the guys in the world so keen,
I'll take my ex U. S. Marine.—M. A.

My hair is not so dark and wavy,
But I, my friends, shall join the Navy.—C. A.

The least I can say is this,
It's the spirit of King I'll miss.—C. A.

Six years I've come, but only once late,
So I guess it's time to celebrate.—R. B.

The captain of our team this year,
More school, then an engineer.—C. B.

On the field they call me "Blaster,"
After college it'll be schoolmaster.—R. B.

A rushing life she has led,
A steady life's for her ahead.—L. B.

Talking's what I do in classes,
That's what I'll do as my life passes.—J. B.

Slim and shy, auburn hair,
Goes through life without a care.—J. B.

Wavy hair and eyes of blue,
His friends number far from few.—J. B.

Although he is short as can be,
He'll soon succeed in chemistry.—D. B.

I'm a wizard at trig,
But at English a "fig."—B. B.

Blond, short and very quiet,
But I hear she's quite a riot.—V. B.

Some musicians play very cutie,
But hear Buddy on his sweet patootie.—C. B.

Hair styling seems to be her dish,
Success to her is our wish.—M. B.

My life will be a double feature,
I'll go through school and be a teacher.—M. B.

Her laughter can be heard around,
In fact, we know her by its sound.—M. B.

This is our "porky" who is always late,
Except when she has an important date.—R. B.

To be both singer and nurse is a trick,
She will, 'cause she'll sing to the sick.—L. B.

He can be told by his smile and hair,
And he thrills the hearts of the ladies fair.—E. B.

To be a typist is my ambition,
And marriage is my greatest commission.—L. B.

First came doctor, then came dentist,
Now I'm going to be a chemist.—K. B.

In visual aids I worked around,
And now in experience I abound.—R. B.

Charlie has a little band,
Which will be best in the land.—C. B.

He's got a smooth line
That he hands out all the time.—W. B.

This is one Carr
That will go very far.—C. C.

Margaret Seems so sweet and shy,
But there's that bright beam in her eye.—M. C.

She likes dancing about the best,
But then comes school and all the rest.—C. C.

A good business women I hope to be,
But a husband means the most to me.—L. C.

It has long been her ambition
To be an expert beautician.—H. D.

Fair blond hair, eyes of blue,
Always willing to aid you.—E. D.

Personality with a capital "P,"
Ruth sure has it, we all agree.—R. D.

A cute little trick with eyes of blue,
With personality plus humor, too.—A. D.

He will be a surgeon in flight
Then he'll work both day and night.—R. D.

To gain more knowledge
I'll be off to college.—C. E.

To be a teacher is my desire,
But if I wed I shall retire.—B. F.

Drawing and drumming lurk in my mind,
But in Latin and Trig I'm usually behind.—J. F.

Five-foot-four, eyes of blue,
Scholar bright, musician true.—G. F.

Eating lunch is a waste of time,
A candy bar will do for mine.—M. F.

Education is my plea,
Says this school marm to be.—A. G.

Big and tall,
That's Harvey Gall.—H. G.

Tho' his name is Gardner,
They all call him Lardner.—J. G.

To school she brings a very good lunch,
And eats it with a jolly bunch.—J. G.

As a pianist both far and wide,
He could play if his hands were tied.—E. G.

This tall, blond fellow's never tardy
Because, you see, his health is hardy.—L. G.

Now as a student in math I excel,
Later in business my efforts will tell.—M. G.

To like this handsome chap is easy,
Since he's our Class President Giese.—W. G.

Hobbies of planes and hobbies of pearls,
But the best hobby yet is collecting girls.—K. G.

She is always on a diet,
But to her friends she is a riot.—V. G.

We're all willing to place bets,
That what Agatha wants, Agatha Goetz.—A. G.

Together beauty and brain are rare,
But here's a girl who has both to spare.—B. G.

A smile, a joke, a trick, how rare,
But he'll grow up and learn to care.—T. G.

Five-foot-two, eyes of blue,
Shows her dimples when she smiles at you.—B. G.

I'm always happy, never blue,
When I'm gone I'll be happy, too.—G. G.

A bike cadet he's always been,
In the future may he win.—R. G.

Go go along at an easy gait,
Seems to be this fellow's fate.—E. G.

To run a switchboard is my aim,
The pay is good; the work is tame.—L. G.

A gay and musical girl is she,
Making her life from sadness free.—B. G.

I wish that I might type with ease,
If my fingers would only stay on the keys.—D. G.

On weekends late hours I keep,
During the week I like to sleep.—J. G.

He's blond and tall,
And speaks to all.—C. H.

Interior decorating up to date,
But typing and shorthand will be my fate.—P. H.

Tennis is the game I play,
Also—the radio every day.—J. H.

A sense of humor she has,
And a very good ear for jazz.—C. H.

My desire is a stenographer to be,
So typing and shorthand mean much to me.—M. H.

Once I was a soccer player,
Now I am a woman slayer.—D. H.

From morn to night I studied all day,
But now all I want is a lot of pay.—D. H.

His last name could easily be his first,
That is, if his names were reversed.—E. H.

In our band he plays clarinet,
After graduation you'll hear from him yet.—J. H.

They call her Jean but her name is Marge.
She's awfully cute, but not very large.—M. H.

They always tease me 'cause I'm small,
I get so mad that I could bawl.—J. H.

Now—Typing and taking dictation,
Then—Looking forward to a vacation.—M. H.

He was an usher in his day,
And he'll succeed with no delay.—B. J.

All my life I have science been rehearsing,
For I intend to make my profession nursing.—V. J.

For future work I'll be a snap,
If I don't fall into a trap.—O. J.

Helen is a lady fair,
With gentle manner and competent air.—H. J.

Betty is pretty, Betty is wise,
Betty sure knows how to roll her eyes.—B. J.

Now that his high school work is done,
"Fox" is out for a lot of fun.—R. J.

He's never been without a car,
In the future he'll get far.—G. J.

Her hair is dark, her eyes are brown,
In secretarial fields she'll win renown.—E. K.

Always willing to do her best,
Whichever benefits the rest.—A. K.

In the future she sees gloom,
Typing and shorthand spell her doom.—S. K.

I don't want to set the world on fire,
But to be a redhead is my desire.—B. K.

Little Bette and great big Ross,
We'll toss a coin to see who's boss.—B. K.

An answer to a maiden's prayer,
This happy lad with wavy hair.—E. K.

Short, dark, impish too,
Always has a smile for you.—M. K.

Four years of high school—Am I done?
No—Here's to college, boy; some fun.—J. L.

Flo Lebow is my name,
To get ahead is my aim.—F. L.

A sincere student with a grade so high,
To succeed, all he need do is try.—G. L.

He's quiet and shy, none know why,
But we are sure he's a swell guy.—R. L.

I always listen though it's tough,
Some day I may teach that stuff.—H. L.

For a girl with fair blond hair,
Our Gordon searches everywhere.—G. L.

She liked the way the school was run,
But now it's time to have some fun.—L. L.

Five feet ten and eyes of blue,
He will be a salesman too.—R. L.

Marion's sweet and happy too,
Boy, that gum she loves to chew.—M. L.

He appears very shy and meek,
But devilry he loves to seek.—R. M.

As sophisticated as she may try to be,
She'll ne'er more than a little girl be.—V. M.

Knit one, purl two,
She always goes for eyes of blue.—B. M.

Don't bother teachers, for you see,
Some kind of teacher I will be.—D. M.

Goldy-locks are my chief possession,
To be a typist is my profession.—M. M.

Cute and little, we see her,
She'll ne'er be a stenographer.—E. M.

Short, dark, and it is said,
A hurried life she's always led.—G. M.

Basketball is his middle name,
And some day it will bring him fame.—R. M.

He always likes a pretty date,
We're sure he'll get a lovely mate.—L. M.

At the girls he is always looking,
But for his wife he will do the cooking.—R. M.

To machinist's study I'll give my time,
I hope someone falls for that line.—P. M.

I toot a clarinet and ride in a car,
Between you and me, I won't get far.—P. N.

Although he's someone tall and shy,
To us he's just a regular guy.—D. O.

Smashing atoms and cosmic ray,
These are the things that make me gay.—W. O.

Altho' her interest lies in Marquette,
Wisconsin is where she hopes to get.—S. O.

Freedom's bells will call me away,
That, of course, is on graduation day.—K. P.

I slept by day, I slept by night,
But I'll wake up some morning bright.—A. P.

There is only one job that's for her,
And that's to be a stenographer.—J. P.

Here's a girl who is ever ready,
She is for one and that's her "steady."—S. P.

Audrey Petersen is my name,
An opera singer is my aim.—A. P.

Though his art is not quite ready,
He may be our future Petty.—W. P.

In school she's very quiet,
But out of school, she's a riot.—L. P.

She seems like a quiet lass,
Until you see her out of class.—M. P.

Gladys seems so sweet and shy,
But she has a gleam in her eye.—G. P.

Four years of school; some snaps,
But now awake I'll bomb those Japs.—C. P.

A little girl with eyes of blue,
Typing work she'd like to do.—I. P.

I aimed at shorthand, typing speed,
In hopes that secretary I'd be.—R. P.

Chestnut hair and hazel eyes,
Not too dumb and not too wise.—V. P.

In homeroom he got quite a hand,
When he was chosen all-City man.—R. R.

Never absent, never late,
In office work she'll surely rate.—P. R.

Quick to learn, and quick to see,
A grand stenographer she will be.—J. R.

I studied hard and did my best,
But inside, I'm like all the rest.—W. R.

A drafting board, that's for him,
To keep the future from looking grim.—E. R.

Vice President and scholar true,
A future great we see for you.—R. R.

A little girl, and studious too,
Give her all the credit that's due.—A. R.

Sometimes I wonder what I'll be,
But soon I'll find out, just you see.—L. R.

Full of ambition, pep, and vim,
You'll daily find her in the gym.—M. R.

He's quiet and conservative,
A happy future life he'll live.—F. S.

Jolly and sensible, short and bright,
Never extreme but always just right.—H. S.

She frightens all with her sneeze,
But to success she holds the keys.—J. S.

She is a lady from head to toes,
And makes friends wherever she goes.—R. S.

Corinne was grand in our school plays,
We hope she'll be a Helen Hayes.—C. S.

Small and dark, really quiet,
She will never need a diet.—G. S.

Calm and tall, a dandy chap,
We'll find his mark on our map.—J. S.

Nursing is her only aim,
That's where she will find her fame.—F. S.

With a nickname of "Lucky,"
He should surely prove plucky.—H. S.

The girl who fills our halls with laughter,
Will live in our minds ever after.—D. S.

My banged up knees are up-to date,
I get them when I roller skate.—S. S.

In business he'll make his mark,
For in his sales he's one grand shark.—G. S.

Though meek and shy he may be,
You don't know him, believe me.—W. S.

I like the talk of Army life,
I'd like to be an Army wife.—S. S.

I like to hunt and like to fish,
But a great future is what I wish.—D. S.

What is the attraction in Whitefish Bay
That makes Luella's attention stray?—L. S.

When you're feeling sad and blue,
Think of me and I'll think of you.—A. S.

Visual Service and Dance Cadet,
But for my future I'll make no bet.—W. S.

Shorthand, typing, to sing or to dance,
At one or the other she'll get a chance.—J. S.

Dark brown eyes, friendly smile,
Thinking of "Swede" all the while.—F. S.

He was always a very good friend,
We hope his luck will never end.—E. S.

In the future she will design,
This type of work is in her line.—A. S.

I'm five feet six with eyes of brown,
I'll go through life without a frown.—S. S.

I've spent my years in music rooms,
Listening to operatic tunes.—A. S.

He always has a joke or two,
And is always kind to you.—M. S.

Insects, microbes, bacteria, germs,
He'll be a scientist in a few terms.—J. S.

There's always be boys who are pokey,
But he's the only one called "Smokey."—A. S.

Our Ginny's sweet and lovely smile,
Shows all her friends she is worthwhile.—E. S.

Dark brown hair and laughing eyes,
Sometimes witty, always wise.—J. T.

FEBRUARY — 1942

Dear Diary — Boy! Have I got a swell program this semester. Pete and I both have the same lunch hour. The only thing I don't like is the idea of having gym right after lunch. Miss Simandl and Mr. Ehlman have left King but two new teachers, Misses Risjord and Losey, have joined the faculty, so that evens up the score.

Dear Diary — Boy! Skirts seem to be getting shorter day by day. It's hard to tell if a girl's even got one on when she's wearing a fingertip coat.

Dear Diary — Today we had an air raid drill. I guess Mr. Chamberlin thought we did a good job of it and I agree with him. It was so quiet you could have heard a pin drop any place in the whole building. It seems that the kids are beginning to realize the seriousness of it all. Many alumni and even students have already joined the armed forces.

FEBRUARY — 1942

Dear Diary — The whistle system for the air raid alarm was tried out today. It's a swell idea in case the loud speaker is put out of order.

Dear Diary — Today was a quiet day except that I broke two bottles in the cafeteria during lunch hour. Oh! I almost forgot. Pete took this picture of Mr. Scharf and Mr. Johnson in a class for blueprint reading. This next looks like a couple of accidents, but it's just a First-Aid demonstration.

Dear Diary — The Rufus King Unit of Women's Red Cross Knitting was started today. It's really inspiring to see the number of women who are willing to give up their time for their country.

Dear Diary — Activities for this new semester were started today. I signed up for one and Pete signed up for two. So, we've really got pretty full programs.

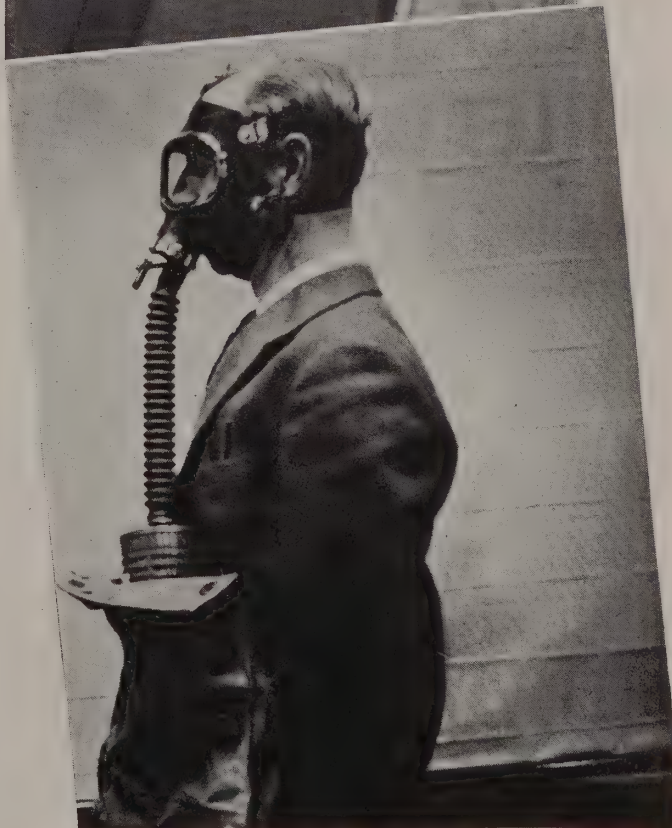

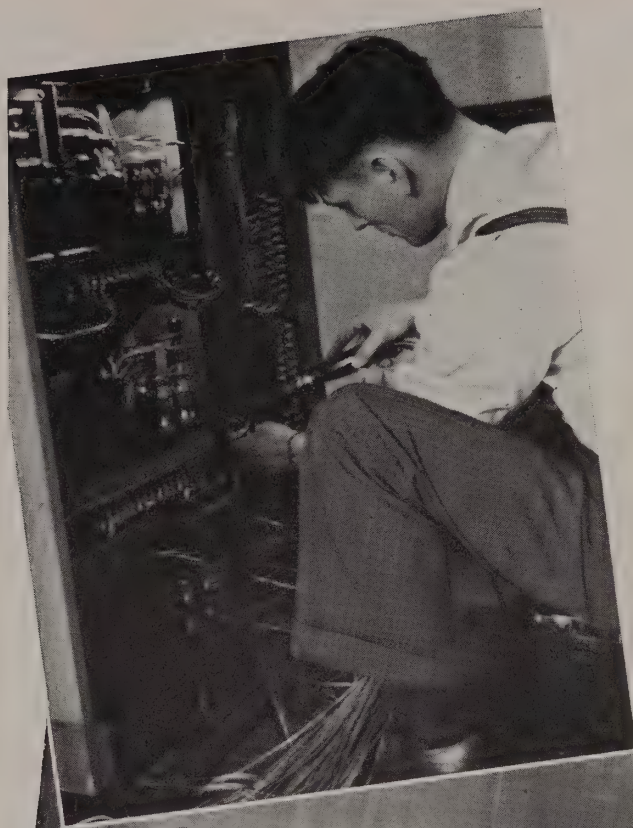

FEBRUARY — 1942

Dear Diary — Sprung a leak in my stadium boots today. S'pose I'll have to get a new pair. They're as necessary as saddle shoes now.

Dear Diary — These are a couple of shots Pete got this afternoon. One's of Mr. Struck and Mr. Charette proudly showing off the drill press they designed. The other one's not a man from Mars! It's just Mr. Scharf showing us how to wear a gas mask.

Dear Diary — The public address system was moved from Mr. Chamberlin's office to 113 today. What a job! I got a new coral colored sweater. It's really a honey. I hope Pete likes it.

FEBRUARY — 1942

Dear Diary — Here's a picture of our basketball team. They suffered two losses at the hands of South and Marquette, but defeated Pulaski, West, and Bay View.

Dear Diary — I helped decorate the gym for the prom. Boy! Am I tired and stiff. What I need is a lot of rest and believe me — I'm going to get it. But after the Prom!

MARCH — 1942

Dear Diary — I'm knitting a v-necked pullover sweater, and Pete thought it would be for him. He was irked when I said it was for someone else, until I told him that it's for Red Cross. Did he look relieved when I said that!

Dear Diary — Clay modeling looks like loads of fun — Barbara Pflitner does it so well it seems easy. So does Lawrence Schramm, who made a clay bust of MacArthur. Speaking of General MacArthur, he and his men make the front page of the newspapers a lot more interesting these days!

Dear Diary — No more basketball games 'til next year — Pete and I saw the last one tonight in our gym. We thought we were going to win, but Washington seemed to have a little edge, and they won, 39-35 — that's close, though.

MARCH — 1942

Dear Diary — Today Pete and I tip-toed into the room where Art Shanks was listening to a program over the loudspeaker, and Pete just couldn't resist taking his picture. He didn't even know we were there!

Dear Diary — Pete brought over this basketball picture he took the other night.

Dear Diary — During lunch hour, Pete and I usually go in the team rooms and watch the ping pong tournaments these days — Hubert Schneider is a wonderful player, and state table tennis champion, too!

Dear Diary — There is talk of eliminating Easter vacation this year. Oh, I hope they don't!

MARCH — 1942

Dear Diary — Today we heard Mrs. Dorothy Fuldheim speak on world affairs, in the auditorium. She told us so many things about the Axis, the Russians, the Australians, and Alaska. Besides, she was funny, too!

Dear Diary — Sure, and I'm after feeling a wee bit Irish today, since this is St. Patrick's Day. Pete wore a green tie, and I wore a green ribbon.

Dear Diary — Pete and I went bowling and I made 111 points, instead of my usual 55! I heard that the faculty bowling team has been doing all right, to put it mildly.

Dear Diary — Pete had to break a date with me tonight, but I don't mind, because he is working on a model airplane for defense.

APRIL — 1942

Dear Diary — Today I got to school at 7 o'clock because Pete called up and said I should hurry — why didn't I look at the clock or remember that today is April Fool's Day?

Dear Diary — Pete and I are doing our part for the war by giving up sodas (and buying defense stamps with the money), doing Red Cross work, and saving wherever we can — paper, tin cans, and lots of other things. Today we went in and saw Don Peitch helping by working on a model airplane.

Dear Diary — Dean Holt, of the University of Wisconsin, gave an inspiring talk to the seniors today.

Dear Diary — Pete wore his new suit with the cuffless pants, and when we were in the auditorium hearing the Milton College glee club, he looked nicer than any other boy!

APRIL — 1942

Dear Diary — Pete and I took our winter coats out of hiding, and watched the Army Day parade tonight. King's marching band got drenched, but still looked swell!

Dear Diary — Pete and I rounded up the cast of "The Trysting Place" and got this sort of formal picture. The play was so cute!

Dear Diary — Those Japs just better watch out! Besides all the other things King students are doing, lots of them (including Pete and me) are working on maps with air raid wardens, and 250 are planting their own Victory gardens.

Dear Diary — Today Pete and I went out to North Hills and saw King's golf team beat Custer, 398-401. Coach Scharf expects them to do all right this year.

APRIL — 1942

Dear Diary—Today at South, King won its third track meet in a row! I bet Ken Wiesner will be famous some day—in this meet he jumped 6 feet, 1 inch. That's 1 inch better than the former record.

Dear Diary—Were Pete and I thrilled when King's gym team placed third in the all-city gym meet today! Watching them is just like seeing a circus.

Dear Diary—Our track coaches certainly know their business! Mr. Kaczmarek, Mr. Neubauer, Mr. Hanks, and Mr. Foti have helped our track team to be what it is.

MAY — 1942

Dear Diary — We had an Arbor Day program over the loud speaker today. Trees were planted in honor of the alumni in service. Very impressive.

Dear Diary — Everyone is getting spring fever. Kids walk around in the halls in a daze. I almost forgot to hand in my term paper. Baseball's going strong during the noon hours too. Here are some of the kids practicing to be future Di Maggios.

Dear Diary — Sugar rationing began today. Half the teachers were absent from classes. Here's a picture of a problem that called for professional advice. Mom is all up in the air about it.

Dear Diary — It was so bright and sunny out today that Pete thought it was a good time to snap our golf team. From left to right they are Billy Sixty, Rupert Hughes, Mr. Sharf, Dick Gaedke, and Dave Bagemihl.

MAY — 1942

Dear Diary — I went downtown after school and got the huraches I've been aching for. All the kids have them. I forgot to say that Betty Menke won a scholarship to the Layton School of Art. Maybe some day I'll win one.

Dear Diary — Pete and I went to the city relays. Was it super! We won — and against the toughest competition in the city. Looks good for the City Meet. Here are Ken Wiesner, Erwin Bannenberg, and Bob Richardson.

Dear Diary — I dragged Pete to the Matinee Dance after school. Lots of kids and fun!

Dear Diary — Waukesha Relays! Fun galore! We went in Pete's old rattle-trap. Joe and Sally went too. We won, scoring  $56\frac{1}{2}$  points. That wasn't hard to take.

MAY — 1942

Dear Diary—Madison State Meet with our track team coming in third. Quite a few boys distinguished themselves by getting firsts and seconds. All the spring sport boys are going to town this year—track, golf, and tennis.

Dear Diary—We went to the All-School Prom! There was a reception line, Larry Evert's orchestra, and everything you could ask for. Pete looked too too divine and said I was his dream girl come true. The gang piled in Pete's pride and joy after the dance and went to Lil's for more refreshments. It was heavenly! !

Dear Diary—Here's a group picture of our golf team. They came in second in the city league. The snaps show the boys in action. We had a Memorial Day program today, tomorrow being Saturday. It gave me a rather queer feeling inside.

JUNE — 1942

Dear Diary — Here are some shots of our championship tennis team. Are they good! I got them all to line up and Pete snapped them.

Dear Diary — Pete and I went to the Spring Concert tonight. I'll bet it involved a tremendous amount of work 'cause it all went off so smoothly.

Dear Diary — Commencement exercises tonight and golly, the program was really inspiring, and there weren't any long, boring speeches! Summer vacation, yippee! !

To a good deal.
I can't think of anything to say, so I hope to see you this summer.
Very truly,
Wm. Brewster

I hope at last
I am writing
you something from the pen of a lover loads of love

&
much to a very sweet little girl who surely knows how "anxious" you are
for best of everything.
!?!? friend smacker. !?!?
Marion Wolff

Dear Jean, I remember that like! we ought to do it again. I am wondering if this is the

the fellow who is in (Laffer) Aldenburg.

You asked me to write
What shall it be
Two little words
Remember me

Ever
"Lard"

is a swell kid in the neighborhood I don't know very well, but I think I know him.

Dear Sam
do a fellow home son
Mch. I do hope we get to know each other better.
By the way.

Bea miss
see you soon,
that's means I think you're swell + I sure do (ill take you up) in that invitation)
Betty Brueggemann

Good luck Jan.
Betty Brueggemann

Best of Luck to a girl I have known for two semesters

Lea
Laubenmann

Dear Jan,
I think you have the sweetest mother, and your scout in our troop. I don't know what else to say, but I hope we continue our scout troop, and that you remain one of my
"good friends."
Corinne Schubert
6/17/42.

To an old friend
Roy Kestner

Dear Jess,
may we always be friends
Mary Brown

To amigo mi.
Ken Klabunde
THE FLIRT

I think girl scouts and boy scouts should get together more often
Joe. Eckert

Up a little in public
Bob
Klabunde

Good luck to a very active group.
Joe. Eckert

To a swell pal
Jerry

Good Luck!
Polina W. W. W.

To a girl who's really going to get someplace
Emil Ewald

Jean
To one of the smartest and nicest girls I know.

Heath
Rice

Lots of luck to a swell
classmate of mine in that dreaded
science class
Ramon Stoffel

In remembrance of 226 & 310.
Ed. Gross

Jack Schallrock to another muzzard of algebra Rogers & Brown

Remember me?
Jim Whelan

To a Smart Kid!!!
Jack Caege

To a sweet kid
in my Latin class
Esse bonus.
Pat. Babble

English was fun
wasn't it??
Mary. Weaving

To a sweet kid
in my Latin class
Esse bonus.
Pat. Babble

Yours Pal
Brettby Brechner

Best of luck in your ds.
Pat. Humes

To one of the smartest kids
I know.

Mary Louise Page
112

Jan.
I don't know
you very well but you seem like a sweet kid. Best wishes.
Charlotte
Harnack

Lots of luck and happiness to a girl also in Algebra class
Mary Grace

To a very smart girl in my Latin class.
Clare Arnold.

To an old classmate.
Dick Rieberg.

To a very swell
gal

Loads of Love
Joan Adair
441

Ed
is a super genius
and is a gal of F.

Go a girl that knows all the answers
Melvin Hamitz

There's a girl who helps me with my Latin
and we have lots of fun
together.
